2020-2021 Handbook Guidelines

GENERAL

- ☆ One entire section must be said at a time without use of handbook.
- ☆ Two helps per section.
- ☆ No helps when reviewing handbook.
- ☆ Both reference and verse are required to pass.
- ☆ Sections are generally passed in order, with some exceptions.
- ☆ Strive for consistency, at least one section ready every club night.
- ☆ Parents are encouraged to work with clubbers every day on sections, keep handbook where they can easily see it and encourage them to finish their handbooks.
- ☆ Clubbers cannot work ahead in the program but may catch up with books they missed.
- ☆ Parents and leaders should be familiar with the books the clubbers are working in, what they are learning and what is required of them to pass.

SPECIFIC TO CLUBS

Ages 3-4

- ☆ All Cubbies go through the books together, alternating years.
- ☆ Parents need to sign each section as Cubbie is ready to say that section.
- ☆ Cubbies begin with the “Apple Acres” entrance booklet. Upon completion, they may wear uniform vest with Green Apple emblem.
- ☆ Cubbies alternate handbooks every year. This year they will go through the Honeycomb handbook (Red Ribbon upon completion) and next year they will go through the Appleseed handbook (Green Ribbon upon completion).
