

Evangelicals	Mormon Church
We believe that the Bible the foundation and only source for our theology. We do not believe that anything should be added or taken away from the 66 inspired books (Revelation 22:19).	They have the Bible along with 3 additional books they believe are also divinely inspired. Those books are The Book of Mormon, Pearl of Great Price, and Doctrine and Covenants.
All throughout scripture we see God desiring anyone to come to Him. We do not see anywhere in scripture where God curses humans and causes their skin to be black.	In 2 Nephi 5:21 it states that there was a curse that occurred on humans which caused some's skin to turn black. Those that are black are cursed.
We believe that there is only one God that has existed for eternity as 1 Timothy 2:5 states. We do not believe anyone else can become a god. And we believe that there is only one level of heaven.	In one of their books, Doctrine and Covenants chapter 76:58, and chapter 88:29, among other scriptures within their texts, talk about how Mormon men can become gods of their own planet if they reach the third level of heaven.
We believe that the Trinity is Biblical, and Mary was conceived as a virgin and birthed a Son named Jesus who is both God and man.	The Mormon church teaches that the Trinity is false. They believe that God the Father was a man just like we are today, and he had physical relations with Mary, which bore a human son named Jesus that had god-like powers, but is not God Himself.
The Bible is clear that Jesus is the only way to salvation. No other means are necessary and by no one else shall we be saved except through Christ (Acts 4:12).	Joseph Fielding Smith who was the 10th president of Mormonism, not to be mistaken by the founder of Mormonism, Joseph Smith, stated, "There is no salvation found without accepting Joseph Smith."
There is no biblical verse that talks about this. In fact, that would mean that either Jesus was created, or Satan is eternal. Both of those are incorrect. Jesus is eternal as it says in Hebrews 7:3. Satan was an angel called Lucifer and we know that angles were created beings as Paul tells us in Colossians 1:16	Lastly, the Mormon church teaches that Satan and Jesus are brothers. There are a lot of different texts from various books that put together the entire story, but one part of that is found in Moses 4:1-4.
