Fear and Joy In Worship

2 Samuel 6

1. Real worship begins with desiring God above all else, v. 1-2
 - God went from central to marginal.
 - David desired to make God central again.
2. Real worship has a holy fear of God and his word, v. 2-11
 - God is shockingly extreme in all his attributes.
 - We must only approach God in the way he has provided.
3. Real worship has such joy in God you forget about yourself, v. 12-23
 - It is the shocking extremity of God that makes him so exciting.
 - Overwhelming delight in God rescues us from deadly preoccupation with ourselves.
