

The Conversation
“Amusing Ourselves to Death: Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business”

by Neil Postman

Acts. 17:1-15

-
1. Introduction: What is _____?
 2. Body: Every Conversation Has Two _____.
 - a. The Conversation from _____ Side.
 - b. The Conversation from _____ Side.
 3. Conclusion:
 - a. Three Reasons (for example) Why God Inscripturated His Word.
 - 1) To _____ His character, his _____ Love;
 - 2) To _____ His Standards, making sin _____ sinful;
 - 3) To _____ His Revelation, becoming the _____ Judge.
 - b. Where the Rubber Meets the Road.
 - 1) _____ the Source;
 - 2) Watch what you _____;
 - 3) Exercise your _____;
 - 4) _____ your _____.

The Conversation
“Amusing Ourselves to Death: Public Discourse in the Age of Show Business”

by Neil Postman

Acts. 17:1-15

1. Introduction: What is conversation?
2. Body: Every Conversation Has Two sides.
 - a. The Conversation from the Human Side.
 - b. The Conversation from God’s Side.
3. Conclusion:
 - a. Three Reasons (for example) Why God Inscripturated His Word.
 - 1) To reveal His character, his Holy Love;
 - 2) To publish His Standards, making sin utterly sinful;
 - 3) To freeze His Revelation, becoming the Just Judge.
 - b. Where the Rubber Meets the Road.
 - 1) Consider the Source;
 - 2) Watch what you eat;
 - 3) Exercise your mind;
 - 4) Tithe your time.